Additional comments:

As the current chair of the Harrisonburg Planning Commission, I have the opportunity to use my organization skills as well as my professional expertise to help Harrisonburg truly be the city with the planned future.

I look forward to continue to use my experience and training as a planner to help chart our city's future, as we navigate our way through issues as diverse as the new telecommunications ordinance, issues surrounding the growing food truck trend, business gardens and the increasing number of requests for alley and street closings.

Thanks for your consideration of this reapplication request!
