WARNING: This email was sent from outside of your organization.

Good morning;

I'm applying for Planning Commission to act essentially as a substitute to smooth membership and balance experience given that PC member Zanetta Byrd resigned at the end of June, Mark Finks resigned this week, and current Chair Gill Coleman rolls off the end of this year. That's a lot of people (and a lot of experience) leaving the Commission in a short period of time. Because of the pandemic and the disruption to normal life, recruiting for members willing to serve an entire term (or 2) may be difficult. Mark suggested that I reapply in order to stabilize the membership over the short run.

If appointed, I would intend to serve no longer than the end of Ms. Byrd's term (12/23) and would be delighted to leave sooner if conditions allow.
