ARTICLE VIII LIMIT ON LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 Limit on Liability. In every instance in which the Virginia Nonstock Corporation Act, as it exists on the date hereof be amended, permits the limitation or elimination of liability of directors or officers of a corporation to the corporation, the directors and officers of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation.

8.2 Mandatory Indemnification. The Corporation (the term "Corporation" as used in this Section 8.2 shall mean this Corporation only and no predecessor entity or other legal entity) shall indemnify any individual who is, was, or is threatened to be made, a party to a civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding (including a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation) because such individual is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or of any other legal entity controlled by the Corporation, against all liabilities and reasonable expenses incurred by him or her on account of the proceeding except such liabilities and expenses as are incurred because of his or her willful misconduct or knowing violation of the criminal law. Before any indemnification is paid, a determination shall be made that indemnification is permissible in the circumstances because the person seeking indemnification has met the standard of conduct set forth above. Such determination shall be made in the manner provided by Virginia law for determining that indemnification of a director is permissible; provided, however, that if a majority of the directors of the Corporation has changed after the date of the alleged conduct giving rise to a claim for indemnification, the determination that indemnification is permissible shall, at the option of the person claiming indemnification, be made by special legal counsel agreed upon by the board of Directors and such person. Unless a determination has been made that indemnification is not permissible, the Corporation shall make advances and reimbursements for expenses incurred by any of the persons named above upon receipt of an undertaking from him or her to repay the same if it is ultimately determined that such individual is not entitled to indemnification. The Corporation is authorized to contract in advance and indemnify any of the persons named above to the extent it is required to indemnify them pursuant to this Section 8.2.

8.3 Miscellaneous.

(a) The rights of each person entitled to indemnification under this Article shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors, and administrators. Indemnification pursuant to this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right of indemnification to which any person may be entitled, including indemnification pursuant to a valid contract, indemnification by legal entities other than the Corporation, and indemnification under policies of insurance purchased and maintained by the Corporation or others. However, no person shall be entitled to indemnification by the Corporation to the extent he or she is indemnified by another, including an insurer.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article, during any period that the Corporation is classified as a private foundation under the Internal Revenue Code, the Corporation shall not indemnify any person otherwise entitled to indemnification pursuant to the provisions of this Article or purchase insurance to provide such indemnification if such indemnification or purchase of insurance is an act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code or a taxable expenditure as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE IX INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

Each reference in these Articles of Incorporation to a Section of the Internal Revenue Code means such Section of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law.
