Say YES to more housing in Harrisonburg

Sign this petition to tell Harrisonburg City Council to APPROVE the rezoning request for The Link apartments at 743 S. Main St. in Downtown Harrisonburg

A 265-unit development is proposed for 472 South Main in Downtown Harrisonburg. To allow this housing, the developer asks for rezoning from R-3 to B1-C. The property's current zoning allows only single family homes, duplexes, and townhouses. B1-C, the zoning designation for most of downtown, allows apartments, mixed use development.

We, the undersigned, ask Harrisonburg City Council to approve this request to

- Build more housing in a city where housing prices have gone up dramatically
- Keep Future Growth aligned with the Harrisonburg Downtown 2040 Plan
- Promote more foot traffic for downtown businesses
- Create a more walkable and bikeable downtown

Changing the zoning here sends a clear message that Harrisonburg is for everyone.

We want more housing to make the city affordable, and we want a stronger downtown for all our residents. City Council Public Hearing is Tuesday, August 12, 2025 at 7pm.

This petition is prepared by Livable Harrisonburg, local advocates for abundant, affordable housing, and sustainable transportation.

Say YES to more housing in Harrisonburg

Sign this petition to tell Harrisonburg City Council to APPROVE the rezoning request for The Link apartments at 743 S. Main St. in Downtown Harrisonburg

A 265-unit development is proposed for 472 South Main in Downtown Harrisonburg. To allow this housing, the developer asks for rezoning from R-3 to B1-C. The property's current zoning allows only single family homes, duplexes, and townhouses. B1-C, the zoning designation for most of downtown, allows apartments, mixed use development.

We, the undersigned, ask Harrisonburg City Council to approve this request to

- Build more housing in a city where housing prices have gone up dramatically
- Keep Future Growth aligned with the Harrisonburg Downtown 2040 Plan
- Promote more foot traffic for downtown businesses
- Create a more walkable and bikeable downtown

Say YES to more housing in Harrisonburg

Sign this petition to tell Harrisonburg City Council to APPROVE the rezoning request for The Link apartments at 743 S. Main St. in Downtown Harrisonburg

A 265-unit development is proposed for 472 South Main in Downtown Harrisonburg. To allow this housing, the developer asks for rezoning from R-3 to B1-C. The property's current zoning allows only single family homes, duplexes, and townhouses. B1-C, the zoning designation for most of downtown, allows apartments, mixed use development.

We, the undersigned, ask Harrisonburg City Council to approve this request to

- Build more housing in a city where housing prices have gone up dramatically
- Keep Future Growth aligned with the Harrisonburg Downtown 2040 Plan
- Promote more foot traffic for downtown businesses
- Create a more walkable and bikeable downtown

Changing the zoning here sends a clear message that Harrisonburg is for everyone.

We want more housing to make the city affordable, and we want a stronger downtown for all our residents. City Council Public Hearing is Tuesday, August 12, 2025 at 7pm.

Say YES to more housing in Harrisonburg

Sign this petition to tell Harrisonburg City Council to APPROVE the rezoning request for The Link apartments at 743 S. Main St. in Downtown Harrisonburg

A 265-unit development is proposed for 472 South Main in Downtown Harrisonburg. To allow this housing, the developer asks for rezoning from R-3 to B1-C. The property's current zoning allows only single family homes, duplexes, and townhouses. B1-C, the zoning designation for most of downtown, allows apartments, mixed use development.

We, the undersigned, ask Harrisonburg City Council to approve this request to

- Build more housing in a city where housing prices have gone up dramatically
- Keep Future Growth aligned with the Harrisonburg Downtown 2040 Plan
- Promote more foot traffic for downtown businesses
- Create a more walkable and bikeable downtown

Changing the zoning here sends a clear message that Harrisonburg is for everyone.

A 265-unit development is proposed for 472 South Main in Downtown Harrisonburg. To allow this housing, the developer asks for rezoning from R-3 to B1-C. The property's current zoning allows only single family homes, duplexes, and townhouses. B1-C, the zoning designation for most of downtown, allows apartments, mixed use development.

We, the undersigned, ask Harrisonburg City Council to approve this request to

- Build more housing in a city where housing prices have gone up dramatically
- Keep Future Growth aligned with the Harrisonburg Downtown 2040 Plan
- Promote more foot traffic for downtown businesses
- Create a more walkable and bikeable downtown

Changing the zoning here sends a clear message that Harrisonburg is for everyone.

We want more housing to make the city affordable, and we want a stronger downtown for all our residents. City Council Public Hearing is Tuesday, August 12, 2025 at 7pm.
