Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. During your advance ruling period, you will be treated as a public charity. Your advance ruling period begins with the effective date of your exemption and ends with advance ruling ending date shown in the heading of the letter.

Shortly before the end of your advance ruling period, we will send you Form 8734, Support Schedule for Advance Ruling Period. You will have 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period to return the completed form. We will then notify you, in writing, about your public charity status.

Please see enclosed Information for Exempt Organizations Under Section 501(c)(3) for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.

If you distribute funds to other organizations, your records must show whether they are exempt under section 501(c)(3). In cases where the recipient organization is not exempt under section 501(c)(3), you must have evidence the funds will be used for section 501(c)(3) purposes.

Our records indicate that you were issued an advance ruling letter that treated you as a public charity, rather than a private foundation, during an advance ruling period that ends on the date indicated above. That letter required you to file IRS Form 8734 at the end of your advance ruling period to establish that you qualify as a public charity.

New IRS regulations changed the procedures governing your public charity status. You are no longer required to file Form 8734 at the end of the ruling period. The regulations also provide that donors can rely on your advance ruling letter with respect to your public charity status unless the IRS changes that status, based on the organization no longer meeting an applicable public support test, and publishes notice of the change.

If you have received Form 8734 from the IRS, please do not file it. Please keep your advance ruling letter along with this letter for your permanent records.

The regulations also changed the rules for computing public support, consistent with the redesigned Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax. For more information regarding those rules and the redesigned Form 990, please see the IRS website at www.irs.gov/eo.

Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

The Executive Director, Sam Nickels, is a volunteer for the organization. A year ago he took on a full time job, and also began to do consulting work on asylum cases. Being extremely busy, as are other board members increasingly, we all accidentally let slip the filing deadline for the 990. We have no paid staff to complete this work, and have to squeeze it in among other commitments. Due to extremely heavy commitments this year, we missed it. We apologize and will do our best to get back to meeting future deadlines. Upon completion of this document, I will next work on the 990 for 2018. Thank you for your understanding. I hope you are able to withhold any charges due to the fact that our funds are extremely low at this time.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

recreational activities since 2002. Training of police officers, health workers, social workers and other community leaders has been an important component to this program, which has served over 1200 individuals. Over 275 families have completed the 4 month educational program to learn about mental illness, self-care, and how to manage their loved one with serious mental illness. Randomized controlled studies in the U.S. have shown a similar program to result in reduced burden and stress, and improved compliance, communication, and self-efficacy. Advocacy is an important goal of the program: to improve services, voluntary participation, and government funding for mental health programs across the country, as well as to involve persons with mental illnesses in human rights commissions and reform efforts at the national level. We have carried out 2 qualitative studies that show benefits from the project's different components. In 2013 we carried out a qualitative study, and in 2015-2016 a quasi-experimental study to better understand the program, its impacts, and ways to improve it. Results demonstrated that the longer people participated in the program, the greater their gains in leadership development, empowerment, social capital, and other measures. In 2017 studies were developed and presented on access to medications and decentralization of mental health services in El Salvador.

being sought to carry out implementation of an expanded national program along with research on the project, and other research as funding allows on topics determined significant by researchers, users, and families. 2) In September 2014 we began a new regional support effort (REDSAM) to strengthen user and family associations in El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Panama. Government health agencies and the Pan American Health Organization have collaborated to help us with annual conferences (2015 in El Salvador, 2016 in Costa Rica, 2017 in Panama), family education and support courses in all countries, and economic initiatives and programs for users. Funding from the Inter-American Foundation is channelled directly to our partner agency ACISAM in El Salvador to manage the program.
