Operations

Harrisonburg Redevelopment & Housing Authority

What inspections are required by HUD?

- Housing Quality Standards (HQS)
 - Requires inspection of 13 key aspects of housing quality
 - Initial When a tenant first identifies a unit they wish to rent
 - Annual Each year that a tenant resides in a unit
 - Special for Quality Control or Complaint Resolution
- Section Eight Management Assessment Program (SEMAP)
 - Evaluates effectiveness of Agency in managing its properties
- Real Estate Assessment Center (REAC) Inspections
 - Evaluate internal management systems used by the agency
 - Financial management, Operations management, Voucher management, etc.

HRHA additional inspections done

- HRHA annual inspection of all units
- Voucher supported properties have additional third-party inspector
- Other funding requires additional third-party inspector

Therefore, many units receive a minimum of 3 separate annual inspections to satisfy different funding/oversight sources.

• City building inspections, sprinkler system inspections, pest inspections, etc. occur on a regular basis as well

How are tenant complaints handled?

- Formal and informal
 - Life/Safety
 - Building required
 - Resident allegation
- Receive complaint and assign responsibility
- Investigate validity and required evidence
- Determine appropriate action
- (service coordinator)

What are the Board's Functions?

- Budget and Policy approvals
- Monthly oversight
 - Financial
 - Operation
 - Complaint resolution
- Annual Audit results
- Approval of goals and initiatives
 - Housing
 - Redevelopment
- Annual Strategic Planning
